MY SECRET WEAPONS

Barney Martin

THE SYDNEY-BASED HAIR EXPERT REVEALS THE PRODUCTS HE CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT

He's worked backstage at Fashion Week with global hair guru Sam McKnight, and tames Aussie celebrity tresses at his eponymous salon in Surry Hills, but Martin's signature style is anything but high maintenance. "I love to work with the hair's natural texture and movement," he says. "It's important that my clients can re-create the hairstyles I've given them at home with minimal effort." Meet his top tools of the trade.

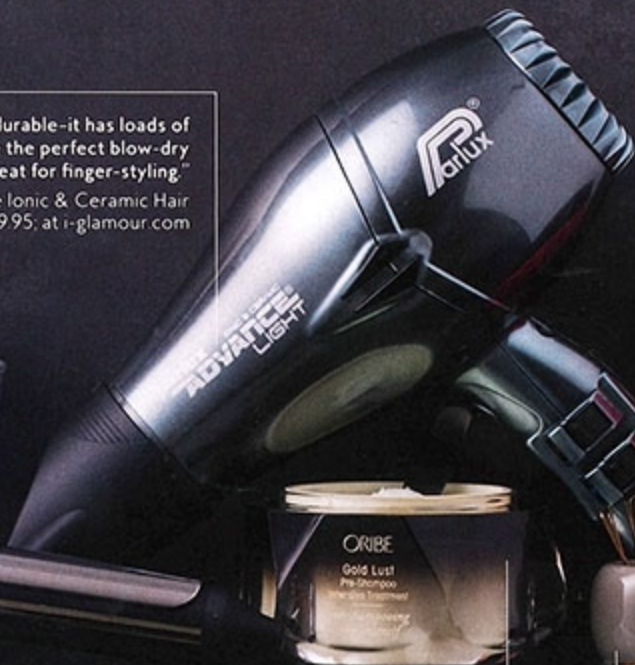

"This hairspray is lightweight, holds your style in place, and you can brush it out without any residue."

R+Co Outer Space Flexible Hairspray, $42; 1300 725 122

"This is really durable—it has loads of power to create the perfect blow-dry and is also great for finger-styling."

Parlux Advance Ionic & Ceramic Hair Dryer, $259.95; at i-glamour.com

Tangle Teezer Salon Elite, $21.95; tangle-teezer.com.au

Lady Jayne Blonde Snagless Elastics, $7 (pack of 18); ladyjayne.com.au

"[A tong] that creates perfect 'S' bends in the hair. If you don't have a straightening iron on hand, you can use it to smooth the cuticle and give your strands some shine."

ghd Curve Classic Curl Tong, $230; ghdhair.com/au

"All of our colourists [in the salon] use this while hair colours are processing to repair existing damage and protect hair from future stress."

Oribe Gold Lust Pre-Shampoo Intensive Treatment, $95; 1300 725 122

"I'm a big fan of fringe pins—they're perfect for loosely securing hair into a soft up-style."

Premium Pin Company 999 2" Fringe Pins, $4.95 (pack of 100); at i-glamour.com
